Case 16-CA-176006
16-CA-183494

RYAN PATRICK MURPHY

ORDER REMANDING¹

On October 3, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why this case should not be remanded for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The Respondent filed a response agreeing that all allegations should be remanded except those regarding the Respondent's recording and camera policies, which the Respondent argues are lawful under Boeing. In response, the General Counsel contends that allegations regarding the recording and camera policies should be remanded (with the other allegations) for analysis under Boeing.

Having duly considered the matter,

IT IS ORDERED that this proceeding is remanded to Administrative Law Judge Donna N. Dawson for the preparation of a supplemental decision addressing the complaint allegations (including allegations regarding the Respondent's recording and camera policies) under Boeing and setting forth credibility resolutions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommended Order. Copies of the supplemental decision shall be served on all parties, after which the provisions of Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations shall be applicable.

Dated, Washington, D.C., November 16, 2018.

By direction of the Board:

/s/ Roxanne L. Rothschild

Acting Executive Secretary
